Old Man River
Reminds Us Much
Remains to Be Done

Yesterday the Mississippi river at St. Louis reached the highest level in 103 years, and with new rains the rise continued. Levees on both the Missouri and Mississippi have been wrecked and around St. Louis alone 333,000 acres are flooded with property loss estimated at $8,741,000. Old Man River has become a symbol of mysterious power for human trial or woe all the years of our history, but despite the hundreds of millions of dollars spent on levee works by government and people the Mississippi and its tributaries are still unconquered. Nor will there ever be a complete victory over flood threat until control works are established on all the tributaries that empty into the Mississippi and make it omnipotent. This is a thought for our own people, living in Red river valley far the wide between the Red and the Ouachita. The river waters eventually empty their waters into the Mississippi. And just as the lack of flood control works on the Missouri affects the middle reaches of the big river so does the lack of control on the Red and Ouachita imperil people living at the lower end of the Mississippi.

Not to mention the safety and prosperity of people who live along these smaller rivers and who, by demanding safeguards for their own vicinity, help the cause of flood control everywhere.

Russians' Funny Money

The American government's agreement in 1944 to give Russia the plates for printing Allied occupation currency, with no strings attached, was "under the circumstances, a reasonable and plausible decision." That was the opinion expressed to Senate investigators the other day by John H. Hildring, assistant secretary of state for occupied areas.

Some of the rest of Mr. Hildring's testimony, however, casts doubt on the reasonableness and plausibility. He said that the Russians might have guessed that Russia, given the plates with no obligation to account for or redeem the occupation marks, might flood Germany with funny money. But they were confronted with Russia's threat to print her own occupation money otherwise. And the U.S. was gambling on economic unity.

But there is more to the story, as Mr. Hildring told it. General Eisenhower has paid for the money the Russians were driving the Germans hard in the East. "It was to our interest to see to it that the drive continued," the assistant secretary said. This explanation throws an interesting light on one backstage scene of the wartime alliance.

At the time in question, the Russians may have known that the promised invasion was imminent. They surely knew that we had given them billions of dollars' worth of war material. Yet our officials seem to have believed seriously that the Soviets might soften their finishing blows at the Nazis unless they got their way on this matter.

How, under those circumstances, could our government have had "every reason to believe" that relations would be agreeable on the part of the U.S. had been removed? common danger that united Russia and lost. But post-mortem opinions can't undo what is done.

So it's up to the tax-payers to pick up the tab for a net income of $200,000,000. Nobody knows for sure because the Russians have refused to tell how much money was printed or remitted to be released.

Aside from the sum, there is something depressing about the reasons for paying it. They reflect, we fear, a too typical American attitude compounded of distrust, an unacknowledged desire for peace, and a Pollyanna optimism.

It permitted Russia to claim an almost single-handed winning of the war and to demand payment for it. It led her into the other cities and towns at a later date.

Program activities of the club were highlighted by the dancing of Karen Kreuter of Kansas City, Missouri, accompanied at the piano by the father, M. A. Kreuter. Both of whom were guests of the Lions. Other guests included W. R. Cooper and Jesse Pickard, both local men.

New Lion members introduced were Carl Jones, representing the City Electric Company and Cline Franks, representing Franks & Sons Fruit and Produce Co.

New Breaks on Levee Followed by Evacuation

St. Louis, July 1 — (AP) — New levee breaks along a 90-mile stretch of the Mississippi river forced evacuation of additional thousands today as the rampaging river, already at a 103-year peak, continued to rise from heavy overnight rains.

The town of Dupu, Ill. (pop. 2,000) eight miles south of here, was abandoned when rising floodwaters breached a secondary levee on the Illinois Central railroad tracks about a mile behind the first levee which was abandoned during the night.

The waters also bypassed the Missouri Pacific railroad embankment which saved Dupu in the last big flood of 1944.

The 600 residents of nearby East Carondelet and 300 in the surrounding area were evacuated.

Eighty miles to the south the river broke the Degonia-Pontain Blue levee, two days' driving approximately 600 persons from the villages of Gorham and Neunert, Ill.

As a result of this break, floodwaters pouring down an inland valley threatened to isolate the town of Grand Tower, Ill. (pop. 1043).

Mayor Jesse Grammer estimated about one third of Grand Tower would be isolated.

Marshall Denies Red Charges

Washington, July 1 — (AP) — Secretary of State Marshall today denounced as "malicious distortion" the charges which have emanated from Russian sources — that the United States has "imperialistic aims" in offering assistance to foreign nations.

Marshall told the Women's National Press Club in a luncheon address that "historical records clearly show that no people have ever accepted more generously and more unselfishly than the American people in lending assistance to alleviate distress and suffering."

At the same time, Marshall declared that the United States would "demand" that their assistance to foreign countries should be used for the purpose for which it was intended.

1. Be "expended to serve selfish, economic or political interests."

2. Specifically be used "to assist in economic rehabilitation."

3. Serve "a great purpose in restoring hope and confidence among the peoples of the world."

Marshall did not refer directly to the Soviet Union by name. He said that the United States conference at Paris Foreign Minister Molotov is reported to have taken a position in flat opposition to Marshall's proposals for European recovery.

Important Legion Meeting Scheduled for Thursday

An important American Legion meeting will be held at Legion Hall at 7:30 p.m. Thursday. Although a regular session officers for the coming year will be nominated.

U. S. Conciliator to Try to Settle Bus Strike

Alexandria, La., July 1 — (AP) — U. S. Conciliator R. W. Goodrich was to decide today whether to continue conferences seeking settlement of the five-week old strike of Southern Railway employees.

He said after a conference yesterday: "It's no better than it's been all along; neither side will move."

Four conferences last week also were fruitless.

The strike, growing out of a dispute over a new contract between the company and the Amalgamated Association of Street Car, Electric Railway and Motor Coach Employees (A.E.R.M.C.E.), began May 21. Arkansas is one of the nine states affected.

Says Eisenhower Statement Only Propaganda

Washington, July 1 — (AP) — Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower's statement that the United States Army is a "poor school for Russia" was labeled propaganda and universal military training today by Rep. Short (R-Mo.).

Short suggested a congressional investigation of the army's status among world powers.

Eisenhower made the statement last week to a Senate Appropriations Committee in support of a plan that House cuts in the War Department's military budget be restored.

Short, second-ranking member of the House Armed Services Committee and an ardent foe of universal training, was joined in his suggestion for an investigation by Chairman Leo E. Allen (R-Ill.) of the House Rules Committee.

Eisenhower's testimony with a reporter, Short declared: "That is propaganda for universal military training intended to frighten and scare the American people."

"It is up to Congress to make an investigation to find out what is going on."

Hershel Sewell to Attend 4-H Club Camp

Hershel Sewell, member of the Blevins 4-H club will represent Hempstead county at the Arkansas Tree Croppers' Camp at Petit Jean State Park, July 7-12, County Agent Oliver L. Adams has announced.

Club boys from 40 counties will receive instructions in elementary forestry. Divided into four groups, the boys will study a different phase of forestry each day.

Instructions will be given by 12 professional foresters from federal, state, and private agencies and companies. As Hershel has a farm woodlot at home, he will have an opportunity to put into practice the skills acquired at camp upon his return.

Serving as a junior leader in the county 4-H club forestry program, he will assist in the "Keep Arkansas Green" campaign in the coming months.

Camp will not be all work, as the boys will be given time for recreation, including swimming and softball.

Under the supervision of the agricultural Extension Service of the University of Arkansas College of Agriculture and the State Forest Service, the camp is one means of recognizing the importance of forestry in Arkansas, county agent Adams said.

Self-Styled 'Black Maquis' Says Men Ready to Form French Anti-Communist Rule

By MEL MOST
A self-described leader of the "Black Maquis" said today in a clandestine interview that 25,000 armed men were ready to lead a March on Paris at the appropriate moment to establish an "anti-Communist" government.

Existence of the "Black Maquis" was disclosed yesterday by the industry which announced that it had arrested leaders of the movement for plotting to overthrow the republic and establish a "military dictatorship."

For today's interview the self-described "Black Maquis" boasted: "For every one of us they arrest there are two to take his place."

The anonymous source talked with a reporter for five minutes on a busy corner of the Champs Elysees before disappearing down a side street.

He claimed that arrests were continuing and that "the son of an important government official" had been taken into custody this morning.

The plotters, he said, had "no direct organizational connection" with the old secret committee of revolutionary action (CSAR), also known as the "Cagoulauds" or "Hooded Ones," who were arrested on charges of plotting to overthrow the pre-war popular front government.

The self-described leader said his organization was "passionately anti-German" and was drawn "in large part from members of the resistance" during the Nazi occupation.

"Our sole object," he insisted, "is to prevent the possibility of a Communist menace to French democracy. The democracy has made many mistakes, but it is up to the French people to decide government."

The man conceded that "some members of the organizations may have been members of the Cesar at one time" but would not say whether he was one of them.

The informant would not specify where his alleged organization had its arms but said "an important center" was "the Breton Maquis" — the same element who aided American troops to advance from Normandy. He added: "They have kept their arms."

"Some names may come out in this which will surprise all of you who followed the fight to liberate France during the war," he declared.

Earlier, Breton chapters of Gen. Charles De Gaulle's Rally of the French People (RPF) took steps to purge themselves of possible unwelcome elements after an intervention by the Ministry of the Interior. Plotters had tried to worm their way into the organization.

Compromise on Marshall Plan to Be Discussed

Paris, July 1 — (AP) — The foreign ministers of Russia, Britain and France discussed Secretary of State Marshall's proposal for American aid to Europe for a hour and a half today, and French sources said there would be another meeting tomorrow afternoon.

Earlier there was speculation that today's session — their fourth — might be the last. Soviet Foreign Minister V. M. Molotov virtually has vetoed Marshall's suggestion.

British Foreign Secretary Ernest Bevin and French Foreign Minister Georges Bidault were reported ready to proceed in continental economic planning without the Soviet Union if the conference does end in deadlock.

Bidault, in an attempt to save the conference, will offer a compromise proposal, the French press agency said earlier. Terms of the proposal were not disclosed.

Both British and French circles said "only a miracle" could save the conference from failure.

The ministers were to consider a plan outlined last week by Secretary of State Marshall's June 5 offer of United States help in a European reconstruction program to be drawn up primarily by European nations.

Discussed sources said that both Bevin and Bidault last night termed the Molotov proposal unworkable.

Even Weather Bureau Rates It Unusual

Washington, July 1 — (AP) — The weather bureau rates this summer as unusual, all right, but it doesn't think a new-model summer has been born.

That's the answer the weather bureau has for the large number of letter writers who've been asking, "Is this one unusual or will summer always be cold, stormy and troubled from now on?"

Most of the writers, bureau men said, are midwesterners who have experienced the most abnormal weather anywhere in the country, what with tornadoes, floods and chilly temperatures.

But weathermen, taking a long-range view, maintain that one summer doesn't make a weather cycle any more than one swallow makes a summer.

I. R. Tannehill, chief forecaster, provides the further assurance that the abnormality hasn't resulted from the atom bomb or cutting the trees down, or any of the many other things the letter writers are asking about.

Elaborate observations at the Bikini test site showed no effect upon the weather from the A-bomb explosion, he told a reporter. Tannehill and his associates said the abnormal cold so far this summer has centered about the cutting of the trees down, and the Appalachians. West of the Rockies, it's been abnormally hot; in the east, or most of it, there has been unusual coolness, but nothing like this in the central states.

It's much the same story for rain, the cause of the floods in the lower Missouri and middle Mississippi. "Coolness in the east and in Canada had something to do with the heavy rains in the central states," say the weathermen, explaining.

They just happened in a populated places instead of smacking down in fields, they observed.

14 Appointments to Game Commission Announced

Little Rock, July 1 — (AP) — Appointment of former State Senator Amil Taylor, Clarksville, to a seven-year term on the State Game and Fish Commission, was announced today by Governor Laney yesterday.

Taylor, Laney's legislative secretary in 1947 and 1948 and former member of the board of education, succeeds Dr. Don Hamm Clarksville, whose term expired this month.

Three salaried positions were filled by reappointment for two-year terms of Joe L. Hearne, Little Rock, veterans' service officer; Opie Hartzog, Conway, state poultry inspector; and J. A. Fitzgarrald, Fort Smith, state mine inspector.

Richard T. Steele, Conway, was appointed to the State Banking Board for five years, succeeding A. N. Ragon, Clarksville. Others reappointed: J. E. Gooch, Pine Bluff, State Aply board; Jack Lineback, Brinkley, Barber-Examiners' board; Dr. C. C. Rosenbaum, Little Rock, State Cancer Commission; Dr. A. H. Greene, Little Rock, State Board of Chiropractic Examiners; C. R. Counts, Ozark, State Pharmacy board.

PEACH GROWERS MEET

Little Rock, July 1 — (AP) — Growers from Arkansas' three major commercial peach-producing areas, Nashville, Clarksville, and Crowley's Ridge, were to plan a marketing and merchandising program for 1947 at a meeting with retailers, wholesalers and representatives of the farm bureau and other agencies here today.

Democratic Party Leaders in Six States to Confer

Washington, July 1 — (AP) — Democratic party leaders from six southern states will talk over party affairs, with President Truman and Democratic national committee members here on July 6.

State delegations from Arkansas, Louisiana, Kentucky, Tennessee, Oklahoma and Texas also will be on hand.

The groups will be here in line with the national committee's program of having conferences with groups from every state.

In the Arkansas delegation will be Dr. R. B. Robins, Camden, national committee member; Mrs. Jack Carnes, Camden, national committee member; Arthur L. Adams, Jonesboro, state chairman; Mrs. Howard Johnson, Morrilton, state chairman; and Harvey C. Combs of Little Rock, secretary of the state committee.

The day's program will include talks with national committee of state party leaders, a luncheon, a state group meeting in the afternoon and an evening reception and dinner to which Democratic senators and congressmen from the states will be invited.

Landlords Seek to Evict Tenants

Little Rock, July 1 — (AP) — Some landlords are seeking information on how they can evict tenants under the new rent control measure signed by President Truman yesterday, Area Rent Director R. F. Milwee said today.

Milwee said these landlords wanted to evict tenants, by court action, and are anxious to get the property slightly or make some changes which would permit increased rents under the new law.

Landlords might claim: (1) They want to occupy the property themselves; (2) They have a contractual seal to sell the property; (3) They want to remodel the property in a manner which can't be done while the property is occupied.

Milwee pointed out that under the law, landlords have to have their property returned to state law. In Arkansas, a tenant must be given 30-day notice to move.

Of course, the tenant has a right to reject any offer to have to go to court with his objection, Milwee asserted.

The Arkansas Democrat said that one "prominent owner" of a large apartment house in Little Rock observed that he has no intentions of signing any "two-year leases."

The newspaper quoted the landlord as saying: "Why should I agree to a 15 percent increase for nearly two years? By February (1948) I am certain all rent controls will be off. Then I will be tied up for another year xxx."

"Fifteen percent increases from now to Feb. 1 won't do me any good," he said.

"From my own viewpoint, by February I don't think you will need any rent control. We're getting a lot of business and I think by then we will go back to the old system of bargaining between landlord and tenant."

154th Fighter Group to Make Cross-Country Tour

Little Rock, July 1 — (AP) — The tiny group of the 154th fighter training flight of the 154th fighter squadron, A. K. A. s. National Guard, next weekend was announced today by Brig. Gen. H. L. McAlister, adjutant general.

The squadron, made up of 12 P-51 Mustang fighter planes, two attack bombers and two transports and led by Lt. Col. Timothy Shea, will leave Little Rock Friday.

The squadron will stop at Albuquerque, N. M., for lunch and gasoline Friday and will go on to Van Nuys, Calif., where the fighters will spend the night and part of Saturday inspecting facilities of the 15th bombardment squadron, California National Guard.

The squadron will fly to Oakland, Calif., leaving there after lunch for Salt Lake City for an overnight stop. Monday they will inspect the 1st fighter squadron, Colorado National Guard, at Denver and then return to Little Rock.

In addition to squadron members, those scheduled to make the flight include: Gov. Nathan G. Goddard, navy pilot and Congressional Medal of Honor winner in World War Two; Mayor Earl T. Ricks of Hot Springs and State Senator Elmer F. Bailey of Little Rock, both aviators during the war.

44 Rookies Join Arkansas State Police Today

Little Rock, July 1 — (AP) — Forty-four hand-picked rookies joined the Arkansas state police today. The increased force was provided for by the 1947 legislature, which boosted the state driver's license fee from 50 cents to $1.00.

All of the new policemen underwent a 30-day training period at Camp Robinson. They were addressed by Governor Laney at their "graduation exercises" today.

COLORFUL CABBAGE

Acidity or alkalinity of the cooking water influences the coloring matter of red cabbage, so you can serve it in various hues. It is purplish if cooked in ordinary water; with vinegar added, it is red; a pinch of soda and it is blue; or it will be green if much soda is added.

Coal Operators Look to U. S. to Avert Strike

Washington, July 1 — (AP) — Soft coal operators, in full possession of their mines for the first time in more than a year, looked to the government today to revive contract talks with John L. Lewis in time to avert a new strike July 8.

The miners' 10-day vacation ends next Tuesday, and only a week pact with the operators — or a court injunction under the new Taft-Hartley labor law — appears likely to head off another walkout of the 400,000 bituminous coal diggers.

The pits were restored to private ownership yesterday, when the wartime powers under which they were seized expired. The government took over the mines in May, 1946, to end a 59-day strike.

As the operators gathered for what they hoped would be a week of head-to-head talks with Lewis' United Mine Workers, they declined to confirm reports that the big north group had offered to meet the miners' full wage demands.

Lewis is asking a pay boost of 35 cents an hour, plus the federal mine safety code which he has worked under for the past year of government control, and a ten-cent royalty on coal produced for the union welfare and retirement fund.

The government allowed him five cents a ton or $25,000,000 to 30,000,000 — in the pact signed by Lewis and Secretary of the Interior Krug, ending the 1946 contract strike.

Persons connected with both the industry and the union had said last weekend that a full wage concession offer was made by Benjamin F. Fairless, head of the U. S. Steel Corporation, and George Humphreys, president of Pittsburgh Consolidation Coal Company. Others contended the wage proposal was suggested to clearheads the two big industrialists.

However, no one today would acknowledge either that there had been any offer or even a meeting with Lewis.

Lewis himself kept quiet.

Washington, July 1 — (AP) — The Southern Railway system reported today it has laid off "between 3,000 and 3,500" workers because of the bituminous coal miners' vacation.

A Southern official told a reporter additional workers may be laid off "if the coal supply continues to drop" before the miners' holiday ends July 8.

Local Stores to Re-Open on Saturday

In a meeting yesterday the Chamber of Commerce Merchant's Committee decided to close as usual Wednesday afternoon, close all day Friday, July 4, and reopen for business Saturday, July 5.

Local beauty shops have already announced plans to remain open all day Wednesday and to close July 4 and 5.

Los Angeles Is About Only Big Town That Is Still Able to Laugh at Itself

By HAL BOYLE
Los Angeles — (AP) — This is a big toby town still able to laugh at itself.

What other world city can? London is too sedate. Tokyo — or what is left of it — is too serious. So is Moscow. Paris has grown under the heavy New York is getting them — a flip femme with a middle-aged wisecrack.

San Francisco, St. Louis and New Orleans, they say, are full blown ladies who like their fun, but don't go in for kidding. Chicago is a prosperous best salesman bellowing self-confidently on the outskirts of windy crossroads.

But Los Angeles, well, she's just a big sprawling gal beginning to get her curves — an adolescent with the promise of a clear-skinned beauty showing through her pimples. And, of course, some of the older women — the other cities think she's putting on the lipstick too soon. They know she's competitive.

She has grown so fast she doesn't quite know what to do with herself. She's all arms and legs and no direction, and where she'll stretch next is anybody's guess. She wears smaller diamonds and rhinestone communities like a gawky schoolgirl with a charm bracelet.

She is capricious, lusty and immature, and no other civic youngster in our time has held out such a gargantuan promise for good or bad.

The sun shines vibrant and languor on her all year round, and she is Mediterranean in her ex-tremes — bone poor and Croesus rich. She is the tomb of at least three civilizations.

Los Angeles is one of the last American frontiers — urban rather than rural — for the later-day Daniel Boones who travel in search of greener pastures in jalopies instead of afoot.

Los Angeles is a mixing bowl for the world, showing no signs of melting until the temperature cools.

Los Angeles is a place where the horse is more of a sign of affluence than the motor car. A beggar needs a car here to get from his room to the place where he holds out his hand for a living.

Los Angeles is the world film capital, spinning artistic cotton candy twenty-nine days out of the month and on the thirtieth a web of Shakespearean grandeur.

Los Angeles is the one city left on the globe where every foot of ground is a hard time keeping up a conversation with newcomers who park an astrology magazine in their library next to a first edition of Milton.

Los Angeles is so full of out-landers that when you meet a native son you lift your eyebrows. It's like New York — you never think of anybody ever really being born here.

She's a sort of municipal Texas — Los Angeles is — girdled by mountain, desert and sea. She's America's last city toby town, and about all you can be sure about her is — she's here to stay. And she expects the world to be her beau.

Hawaii Reaches Halfway Mark in Statehood Fight

Washington, July 1 — (AP) — Hawaii's 50-year-old bid for statehood rested at the congressional halfway mark today.

The House passed a bill yesterday to admit the islands as the 49th state. But Senate action this year appears unlikely.

Chairman Butler (Neb.) of the Senate Public Lands Committee told a reporter it will be "impossible" to bring the measure to the Senate floor before Congress adjourns late this month.

He said it is "possible, but not probable," that he and other members of the committee may visit the islands this fall, before Congress reconvenes, to bring the question. That would permit the Senate to act on the measure early in 1948.

Shipyard Strike Spreads to East, Gulf Coasts

New York, July 1 — (AP) — A strike of CIO shipyard workers — previously confined to 10 yards in four states spread to additional east and gulf coast plants today as a walkout of 80,000 more unionists got underway — threatening a shutdown of virtually all major shipbuilding and repair work on the Atlantic coast.

The new walkout — begun at 12:01 a. m. and announced in Camden, N. J., by an official of Local 15 of the International Union of Marine and Shipbuilding Workers — brought to approximately 120,000 the number of men involved in the strike — some 42,000 having struck last Thursday in 10 plants in Maryland, Massachusetts, New Jersey and New York.

Pickets began patrolling at the main gate of the huge Federal Shipbuilding and Dry Dock Company yards at Kearny, N. J., shortly after midnight but an office worker at the yard said less than 100 men, all maintenance workers, were on duty.

The union seeks a 13-cent hourly wage increase, six paid holidays a year, and a 10 percent employment. Skilled workers receive $1.38 an hour and laborers 94 cents under present contracts.

Three Men Arrested Here for Police at Texarkana

Three men who listed their homes as New York City, were arrested here late last night by city police following notification from Texarkana officers where they were wanted for hit-run driving.

They were returned to Texarkana last night to face charges of running down a negro youth on a bicycle and failing to stop at the scene of an accident.

Three-Cent Rate on Postage to Continue

Washington, July 1 — (AP) — The three-cent postage rate on letters will continue indefinitely under terms of a bill signed late yesterday by President Truman.

Without the new legislation the rate would have dropped last night to two cents on letters for local delivery.

Growing Up With Children

The principal reason why parents of children are in a perpetual state of being "in the doghouse" is because they are not of the same generation and age as the children. The average child is West and West and West, and never the twain shall meet. Parents and mothers will bitterly complain that their children are not what they used to be, that they are still young-sterhoods, and that, at any time when they are not being sweet and obedient, they didn't have the silly little tricks that their baby-sitters and their mothers used to pull off. It says they, they recall their own childhoods, and that they always minded Mamma and Daddy, and that they were at home playing tidily, and that they were never, never, no more than ever, out of an evening or using their words, and that they did of embarking on a career of wild adventure, and that they were probably no such infant phenomenon ever existed, but little did they and he or she was it is why they have so little understanding of their children and they fight so incessantly and so miserably with them. For new fathers and mothers grow up with children and realize that the world has changed, even more so than the adult world has.

(There are parents who think that Father should not bring the curfew on him. Mamma at 16 is boy crazy, but she is not allowed to have dates. And the brawl is on that as alienates parents and children and sets the boys and girls, who would like to be honest and truthful in their dealings with their fathers and mothers, into sneaks and liars.

Much of the juvenile delinquency that we deplore is the direct result of two things. The first is a parent who is a direct cause of it, and the second is a child in which everything else goes wrong. A child who is a fast speeder up, age is also been a fast speeder down. A boy and girl in their teens are as much a part of the adult world as their fathers and mothers were in their twenties and are entitled to be treated as grownups instead of as juvenile infants.

The second reason why girls and boys leave home so early is that they can't escape parental tyranny and get the freedom without which life has no flavor.

What we need are parents who grow up with their children.

Army Enlistment Age of 17 Years Is Extended

Washington, June 30.—(AP)—President Truman today signed a bill extending indefinitely the army's voluntary enlistment age for 17-year-olds and carrying other provisions designed to stimulate recruiting.

The bill permits original enlistment of 17-year-olds for a term of six years and re-enlistments for terms up to six years in the regular army. It also permits 17-year-olds could re-enlist for unspecified periods of up to six years, and each of year of their terms.

The bill extends the maximum enlistment period to three years.

Growing Up With Children

The principal reason why parents of children are in a perpetual state of being "in the doghouse" is because they are not of the same generation and age as the children. The average child is West and West and West, and never the twain shall meet. Parents and mothers will bitterly complain that their children are not what they used to be, that they are still young-sterhoods, and that, at any time when they are not being sweet and obedient, they didn't have the silly little tricks that their baby-sitters and their mothers used to pull off. It says they, they recall their own childhoods, and that they always minded Mamma and Daddy, and that they were at home playing tidily, and that they never, never, never had no more than one out of an evening or using their words, and that they did of embarking on a career of wild adventure, and that they were probably no such infant phenomenon ever existed, but little did they and he or she was it is why they have so little understanding of their children and they fight so incessantly and so miserably with them. For new fathers and mothers grow up with children and realize that the world has changed, even more so than the adult world has.

(There are parents who do not have it.)

When Johnnie begins to sprout a mustache like that Father should not ring the curfew on him. Mamma at 10 is boy crazy, but she is not allowed to have dates. And the brawl is on that as alienates parents and children and sets them against boys and girls, who would like to be honest and truthful in their dealings with their fathers and mothers, turn into sneaks and liars.

Much of the juvenile delinquency that we deplore is the direct result of two things. The first is a parent's failure to understand the child, and everything else that goes on when everything else is going on, and speeded up, age also has been added to that, that the average boy and girl in their teens are as much more intelligent than their fathers and mothers were in their twenties and are entitled to be treated as grownups instead of as infants.

The second reason why girls and boys leave home so early is that they can't see how their parents can be so stupid as to escape parental tyranny and get the freedom without which life has no flavor.

What we need are parents who grow up with their children.

Army Enlistment Age of 17 Years Is Extended

Washington, June 30.—(AP)—President Truman today signed a bill extending indefinitely the army's voluntary enlistment age for 17-year-olds and carrying other provisions designed to stimulate recruiting.

The bill permits original enlistment of 17-year-olds for a maximum of six years and re-enlistments for terms up to six years in the regular army.

It also permits 17-year-olds who could re-enlist for unspecified periods to be enlisted for terms of one or each year of their terms.

The maximum term of the enlistment period is three years.

Were it not for party lines, thousands of people—now being served—would still be waiting for telephone service. All the effort we're able to put into the manufacture and installation of new telephone equipment.

If you are on a party line, you'll find courtesy and neighborly co-operation pay big dividends in better service. A party-line who is thoughtful of the other fellow may well find that the other fellow will be thoughtful of him.

Co-Ops Rap Government Selling Power

By GORDON BROWN

Washington, June 30—(AP)—A U. S. Military Commission trying to justify the seizure of a defense plant today has accused the Communist Party of America of "sabotaging" the government's war effort. The commission, which is headed by a judge, is hearing testimony from a former Communist Party member who claims to have been involved in a plot to sabotage the production of military equipment.

APL Will Not Go Ahead With Expansion

Little Rock, June 30—(AP)—C. Hamilton Moss, president of the Arkansas Power and Light Co., said today that the company would not go ahead with its $50,000,000 expansion program until the government decides whether "private enterprise" will be allowed to operate the power lines. Moss said the company had been asked to expand its power lines to serve the needs of the state, but that it was waiting for a decision from the government on whether private companies could be allowed to operate the lines.
